

Catch That Goat Order of Accessories:

Boli (cooked banana) (hand made, stuffed felt banana)

Bread (plastic baguette from our kid's play area! I attached Velcro to the end so it would stay in the goat's mouth along with the boli for the whole play)

Paint pot (Kid's toy pail)

Chicken (had puppeteer scoot our little chicken puppet along behind the goat on his run across the stage)

Sunglasses (Doll sunglasses—they fit perfectly on the goat's forehead—very chic ;)

Wig (Made our own by cutting off some hair from an adult wig!)

Dress (Borrowed dolly dress and slung it over the goat's back)

Child (Scanned picture from the book of a boy sitting down, laminated it, and attached to goat w/duct tape)

Handbag/purse (Another doll toy!)

Shoe (Child's shoe, tucked into purse which was hung around the goat's neck)

Hat (My old kufi-style hat with duct tape inside to keep it from sliding off)
